Minister Barbara Sullivan, associate from Victory for the World UCC, Stone Mountain, GA, TAP graduate, and recent alum of the GTE trip to Thailand, is recovering from a serious illness. Please hold Minister Sullivan and her family in your prayers. Cards may be mailed to the church.

Rev. Christophe Ringer, pastor of Howard Congregational Church UCC in Nashville, TN has suffered another major loss. His step-father, the Rev. Dr. Hycel B. Taylor, former pastor of Howard UCC, died this past January. Now his biological father, Darryl Ringer, has made his transition. He died Tuesday, April 10th and the memorial service was Saturday, April 14th in Chicago. As he did with his step-father, Christophe offered the eulogy. Please do keep the Ringer family in your prayers.

A message sent to the Conference from Rev. Joyce Myers Brown concerning her husband Rev. Ed Brown, both from Central Congregational Church, Atlanta, GA.

Dear Family & Friends,

Most of you know that my beloved husband Ed Brown, at 93, is struggling with a number of health issues. He was at Emory University Hospital April 3 -6 with severe dehydration, and a number of other concerns. The last 12 days he has been at A. G. Rhodes Health and Rehab, here in Atlanta, on our Wesley Woods campus, where we live in an apartment (WW Towers, independent living). Ed has just been moved from a semi-private to a private room at A. G. Rhodes, 314, which is a huge help not only for the peace and quiet but also because there is a window and the trees beyond.

We do not know what lies ahead. Ed has Physical and Occupational Therapy and they are also working to improve his nutrition (he has very little appetite and had lost a lot of weight; regained some). He has needed more i.v. fluids and this is still a concern. We had a Care Conference today and the short of it is that no decisions will probably be made for another 5 weeks...

Ed's health has been declining for some time before all this and he is very weak – but does not realize just how weak nor why the need for all this therapy. Please do keep him, and me, in your prayers. These are very difficult days for both of us.

Thank you all for caring and for your many thoughtful messages.

Bless you!

CULTIVATING A CULTURE OF CALL

The Southeast Conference Prepares for Annual Meeting
June 8-9, Birmingham, Alabama

The Southeast Conference will hold its Annual Meeting Friday June 8th—Saturday June 9th, hosted by First Congregational UCC, Birmingham. A special mailing with registration information, schedules, and other details will be sent to churches and members. The theme of the Annual Meeting, "Cultivating a Culture of Call," will be addressed by Holly MillerShank, the newly elected team leader of the UCC ministry which oversees the process of training and authorizing people for ministry. We will also feature workshops, panels, and more to help congregations prepare to be effective partners in this important part of our shared ministry. Friday evening will feature the TAP convocation and commencement.

The program for the Annual Meeting will begin on Friday morning and continue through Saturday. At 10:00am we will open with a clergy gathering and conversation around the theme, "Nurturing YourCall: What Have you Done for Me Lately?" Registration will open at 11:00am Friday. Following lunch, there will be a panel featuring pastors of churches in the Conference which have a record of cultivating and supporting people for ministry. A convocation following will give participants an option of continuing the conversation by sharing their own stories, or taking a specially arranged civil right tours of Birmingham. That evening, beginning at 6:00pm, all are invited to gather for the TAP dinner, featuring testimonies from TAP graduates, followed by worship and commencement. Our preacher will be Rev. Holly MillerShank.

On Saturday, registration will open at 8:30am and continental breakfast will be available. Our morning program will be one

Conference News - May 2012

Alabama -Tennessee Association Holds 2012 Annual Meeting March 16th and 17th in Pleasant Hill, Tennessee

Over 100 people gathered for the Alabama-Tennessee Association Annual Meeting at the Pleasant Hill Community UCC, surrounded by the incomparable music of the Holy Trinity Community UCC choir from Nashville, an engaging and dramatic puppet troop from Church of the Savior, Knoxville, an inspiring ecclesiastical council, the beautiful newly rebuilt sanctuary and facility of the church, and a call to move forward toward being an association for the new century. On Friday evening an ecclesiastical council was convened to exam Cameron Barr for ordination. Cameron is a member in discernment of the association, a member of Howard Congregational UCC, Nashville, and about to graduate from Vanderbilt Divinity School. He was introduced by his mentor in ministry Lawrence Clark, and his CPE supervisor, Lois Morrison. He preached an inspiring sermon lifting up the challenges of living out of the call to Christian unity as a denomination in this time. He was unanimously voted to become ordainable pending a call. Following a service which featured the puppets of Church of the Savior UCC, Knoxville, the choir of Holy Trinity Community UCC, and communion led by host pastor, Tom Warren, the association adjourned to an ice cream social.

Saturday morning following breakfast the association gathered into small groups to share our life stories and come to know one another better, then convened to the business meeting. The treasurer, Ginny Nixon reported a balance of $13,830 and a budget for 2012-2013 of $18,500. The nominating committee reported that all of the current officers and committee chairs would continue another term. They are: Gray Myers, moderator, Leslie Etheredge, vice-moderator, Ginny Nixon, treasurer, and Marilyn Jones, secretary.

Perhaps the most noteworthy action of the association was that a motion was passed to join the other two associations of the conference to work together in the preparation, authorization and oversight of ministry through a conference-wide Committee on Ministry and a network of sub-committees. The motion was made by Barbara Everett. Conference Minister Tim Downs spoke about the over ten year preparation for this reorganization which began in General Synod in 1999. This work is a way of equipping the new multiple paths to ministry, and will require a significant recommitment of time and energy on the part of local churches, the conference and others. Associate Conference Minister Kathy Clark spoke about the work that has been done to engage members in discernment. Many of those attending were struck by the beauty of the newly refurbished sanctuary of the Pleasant Hill Church, and the warmth of the hospitality of the congregation.

Mission Trips that Matter

Are you looking for a mission trip opportunity for your congregation?

Here is an invitation for a work camp mission trip.

Where: Pleasant Hill, TN, on the beautiful Cumberland Plateau in mid east Tennessee.

Overview: Neighbors Together, a local grass roots organization serving basic needs of individuals and families in the area, is in need of work groups to help us renovate a small old house recently acquired for office space. Uplands Retirement Village, a UCC supported retirement village with residents from all over the country, and Pleasant Hill Community United Church of Christ, a just peace, whole earth, open and affirming congregation, will provide additional work sites and support for volunteers.

Available work camp dates: May, June, and early July

Age preference: high school - adult

Length of work camp: Groups are welcome to come for several days to a week.

Writing the Sacred: A Psalm-Writing workshop. As a veteran workshop leader, Ray McGinnis brings a splendid range of writing exercises to spark your imagination. At this workshop, come play with words, come nurture your spirit as you learn ways to make your own new psalms. Explore how Psalm writing can deepen self-understanding, expand self-expression, personal and spiritual growth. Ray offers a splendid range of Psalm excerpts along with other poets who have glimpsed the sacred in the ordinary through writing. Ray brings to this workshop simple step-by-step journal writing and poetry exercises to help you write a new psalm with ease. Come and explore the thin spaces where reflective writing and spirituality meet. This workshop is designed for both those who enjoy writing and those who have never put pen to paper. This is a workshop open to older children, youth and adults. Come and discover how God is still speaking.

Signed copies of Writing the Sacred will be available for sale during the workshop for those who wish to purchase a copy priced at $20

"This was THE most spiritually honest, open-hearted, accessible workshop I think I have ever attended."

- The Rev. Linda Campbell, St. John's Episcopal Church, Ross, California

"Writing the Sacred is rich with insight, power and meaning. Ray McGinnis gives us a great gift by showing the Psalms to be a living language, a poetic language vital for today. These pages are permeated with our human story - our raw and beautiful longing for God...and acts as a healing balm and creative catalyst to help you reclaim your soul's voice." - John Fox, author, Poetic Medicine: The Healing Art of Poem-Making, Mountain View, California

"Have I told you how much I like your book? I just quoted your work to someone again yesterday and she's going to go buy it." – Christina Baldwin, author, Storycatcher, Whidbey Island, Washington

"Some of the people who were at this workshop today I have known for many years. Yet, I found myself starting new conversations, discovering sides of myself, new insights and appreciations of others who are apart of my church family... I come away with some fresh perspectives about myself and who I am in community that feels both surprising, expansive and affirming."

- Mary, Participant, Trinity Congregational Church, Gloucester, Massachusetts

Jack Seville, recently retired to Uplands Retirement Village in Pleasant Hill, TN, has been honored by the seminary of which he is an alum. Lancaster Theological Seminary has recognized Jack by granting him the Robert Moss Award for his life time of distinguished service to the United Church of Christ. Jack, who began serving in ministry in Pennsylvania. He later went on to serve for many years as the conference minister of Northern Plains Conference, then later served as interim conference ministry in settings across the region, and ended his service as an interim associate conference minister in the St. Louis Association of the Missouri-Mid South Conference. Jack is quite touched by this decision. He will receive the award on May 18, his 74th birthday and 48th anniversary of his graduation from seminary, at Lancaster Theological Seminary during the annual alumni/ae luncheon.
